We all want to live in the place we call home, with the people and things that we love, in communities where we look out for one another, doing the things that matter to us.

The journey so far...

- The power of lived experience
- Changing the way we talk about social care
- Sharing 'glimpses of the future'
- Gathering to help grow the future together

Whose Social Care is it Anyway?

From permanent lockdown to an equal life

5 Key Changes to Unlock an Equal Life

1. Communities where everyone belongs
2. Living in the place we call home
3. Leading the lives we want to live
4. More resources, better used
5. Sharing power as equals

The current public story	Social Care Future story
Being kept alive	Having a life
Social care is a destination	Social care is a vehicle
Looking after 'our most vulnerable'	Caring about & supporting each other
A sector/industry delivering a service	Nurturing ecosystems of support & relationships
People with needs	People with gifts and potential
The growing cost of life & limb care	The growing value of great care & support
Spending	Investment of resources
Only central government can fix this	We can all play a role
Crisis	Opportunity

The background of the slide is a light teal color with a repeating pattern of white lightbulb icons. The icons are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some appearing larger and more prominent than others, creating a subtle texture.

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful committed individuals can change the world.

In fact, it's the only thing that ever has."

Margaret Mead
